

Fall 2016

Education for Change

Breaking the cycle of rural poverty.

THE GUATEMALAN TOMORROW FUND
IN SUPPORT OF AK' TENAMIT.

Our vocational curriculum, unique, rural and culturally appropriate

Ak' Tenamit revamped its curriculum this year, meeting the requirements set forth by the Guatemalan Ministry of Education and keeping within the framework of the Mayan Cosmovision, thus preserving and instilling pride in the students' Mayan heritage.

Left -Textbooks are developed by school staff
Right – Math notes in Spanish, Q'echi, Mayan numerals, English and Garifuna!

Q'echi	Spanish	Number	English	Garifuna
1	Uno	•	one	Sigama
2	Witib	••	Two	Wawaw
3	Oxib	•••	Three	Qadawo
4	Kahib	••••	Four	Qasawo
5	Oob	•••••	Five	Qasawo
6	Waqib	••••••	Six	Qasawo
7	Waqib	•••••••	Seven	Qasawo
8	Waqib	••••••••	Eight	Qasawo
9	Waqib	•••••••••	Nine	Qasawo
10	Waqib	••••••••••	Ten	Qasawo

Ak' Tenamit making an impact at national and international levels

Gregorio Mucu, President; Graciela Coy Vice-President and Carlos Quim, Director of Education with Guatemalan Minister of Education Discussing Ak' Tenamits role in rural education

Graciela Coy, Vice President (far right) at the United Nations sharing Ak' Tenamit's work with Girls Education

Students making an impact in their communities | learning new skills during free time

Ak' Tenamit students taking newly learned sustainable agriculture techniques back to their communities.

Special interest groups in sewing, weaving, and marimba playing are created for the girls program

Contact Us

P.O. Box 3636, Tequesta, FL 33469 Tel: (561) 747-9790
Email: info@thegtfund.org Web: www.thegtfund.org

113 students graduated with degrees in Sustainable Tourism and Rural-Well Being. 62 girls and 51 boys completed 3000 hours of hands on work experience in their chosen field. 25% had jobs at graduation. 27 students graduated from middle school and the first 12 students graduated from the off-site middle school at Seacacar.

20 midwives finished training at Ak' Tenamits health clinic. With their diploma they received a backpack of medical equipment and they will return to their communities to provide basic health care.

2880 visits to our riverside clinic
1000 dental patients
188 medical evacuations

This all happens because of you!

Thank you!
¡Gracias!
¡Bantiox!

Happy Holidays and our best wishes for a healthy and happy 2016